IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

1. With the exception of otherwise publicly available documents and information, all materials, including documents and the information contained therein, electronic data, and other audio or visual materials that are provided by the Government to the defendant in this action pursuant to Rule 16 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, Title 18, United States Code, Section 3500; *Brady v. 2. Confidential Information disclosed to the defendant or to his counsel in this case during the course of proceedings in this action:

(a) Shall be used by the defendant and his counsel only for purposes of defending this criminal action;

(b) Shall not be disclosed in any form by the defendant or his counsel except as set forth in paragraph 2(c) below; and

3. Confidential Information disclosed to the defendant or to his counsel during the course of proceedings in this action, including any and all copies made of said material, shall, at the conclusion of this matter, either be returned to the Government or shredded and destroyed. This matter will be concluded upon expiration of either the period for direct appeal from any verdict in the above-captioned case or dismissal of the charges against the defendant.

4. The defendant and his counsel shall provide a copy of this Order to Designated Persons to whom they disclose Confidential Information pursuant to paragraphs 2(c)(i)-(iv). Designated Persons shall be subject to the terms of this Order and shall sign an acknowledgment, to be retained by the defendant's counsel, indicating that they have received and reviewed the terms of this Order and understand that they are bound by it before being provided with, shown, or read the contents of any materials produced pursuant to terms of this Order. In addition, if Confidential Information is provided to any Designated Persons, counsel shall make reasonable efforts to seek the return or destruction of such materials as set forth in paragraph 3.

5. The defendant and his counsel will not attach any materials produced pursuant to this Order to any public filings or publicly disclose any such materials, or their contents in any other manner, without prior notice to the Government. If the defense and the Government cannot agree on the manner in which the documents or their contents may be publicly disclosed, the parties shall seek resolution of such disagreements by the Court.
